Etymology Project

BY, EVAN FLIEGE

Accordingly

- Middle English
- [uh-kawr-ding-lee]
- Adverb
- From Middle Fourteenth century, it meant “in agreement with”.
- From Middle Fifteenth century, it meant “Properly;adequately”.

Superstitiously

- Middle English
- Latin
- [soo-per-stish-uhs-lee]
- Adverb
- From 1340-1400 it meant “of the nature of, characterized by, or proceeding from superstition.

Evan

- English
- Welsh
- [ev-uh n]
- Noun
- Evan in Gaelic Eóghan means “Youth” or “Young warrior”.

Sources

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Evan http://dictionary.reference.com/browse/Evan http://etymonline.com/index.php?term=Evan&allowed_in_frame=0 http://www.behindthename.com/name/evan http://dictionary.reference.com/browse/superstitious http://dictionary.reference.com/browse/accordingly