

Noah

Allen

Todd

Etymology Project

By: Noah Todd

Baseball

Llama

Noah [noh-uh]

Noah is the number 1 ranked name in the U.S.

The name Noah is Hebrew which means rest or comfort.

The name Noah has been used for a very long time and was the name of the build of the ark which saved him, his family and many animals from the great flood.

Allen [al-uh n]

Allen is ranked number 367 in the U.S

The name Allen is a Celtic baby name which means harmony, stone, and noble.

A famous bearer of this name was Allen Ginsberg 1926-1997, an American beat poet

Todd [tod]

Todd is not a very popular name in the U.S.

It is mostly an English name and it means fox.

The name is usually only used in the U.S and England and not very popular. It is mostly used for last names.

Llama [lah-muh]

Llama is a Spanish word and was first used in the late 17th century.

A domesticated pack animal of the camel family found in the Andes, valued for its soft woolly fleece.

Baseball [beys-bawl]

Baseball was first invented in 1839 in Cooperstown, New York.

A ball game played between two teams of nine on a field with a diamond-shaped circuit of four bases. It is played chiefly in the US, Canada, Latin America, and East Asia.

Sources

www.behindthename.com/

<http://dictionary.reference.com/>

www.audioenglish.org/dictionary/baseball.h tm

dictionary.reference.com/browse/llama