

Etymology Project

BY: Brandi Ferree

Competition

Noun. Act of competing

From the Latin word

competitionem in 1610

Agreement rivalry

Competition

Tap the "+" above to customize home screen.

Brandi

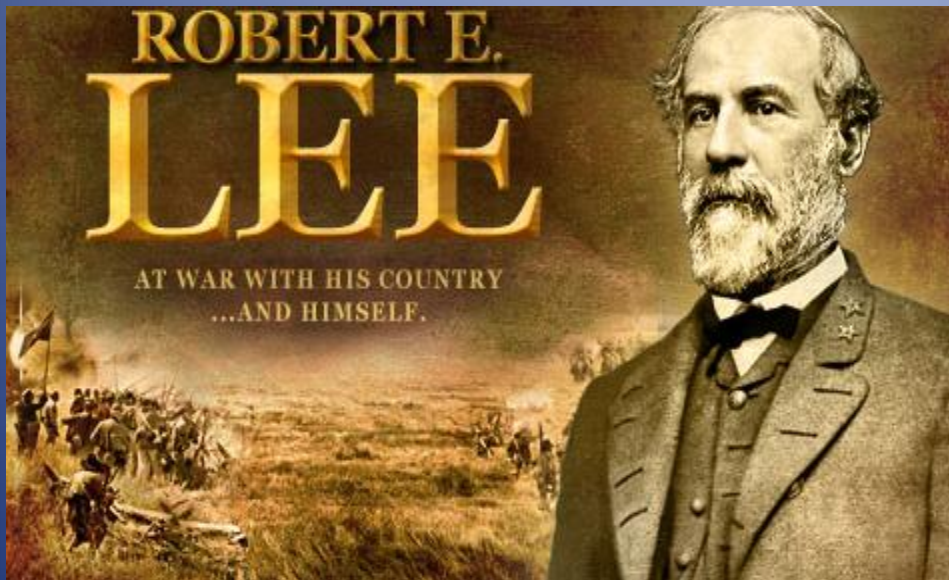

- Feminine
- English
- BRAN-dee
- Ranked 987 in the United States
- Means “Sword”

Lee

- Masculine and Feminine
- English
- From a surname which was derived from Old English Leah meaning "clearing".
- Ranked 667 in the United States & 81 in Ireland
- Popular because of Robert E. Lee

Lee

Ferree

- Frequently used in the U.S as a last name
- Ranked 8934
- Definition- railway sleepers

Ferree

Who Were The Ferrees?

FERREE

Run

- Moving at a speed faster than a walk and never having both feet on the ground at the same time
- From the German word rinnan
- Created in the 1500s

Run

Sources

- <http://www.etymonline.com/>
- <http://www.behindthename.com/>
- <http://www.rhymezone.com/r/d=ferree>