

TEXT, FRIEND AND MADISON

My words

By: Madison Hitchcock

TEXT

- ⦿ A text is a electronical message sent over a cellular network from one cell phone to another
- ⦿ Its old English and old French
- ⦿ It also means to send message by a mobile system
- ⦿ Its from old French word texte, old north French word tixte, from medieval Latin word textus.

FRIEND

Friends

- ⦿ A friend is a person attached to another by feelings or affection or personal guard
- ⦿ Old English (freond)
- ⦿ Present participle of freogan meaning “to love, to favor”
- ⦿ In the 1670s it was known as a Quaker meaning a member of society

MADISON

- ◉ Gender: is Feminine and Masculine
- ◉ Origin: English
- ◉ Pronounced MAD-is-sen
- ◉ History: its from a English meaning “son of Maud”. It was not used as a feminine name until after the movie splash in 1994.
- ◉ Its ranked #8 most popular names in the United States

SOURCES

- ⦿ <http://www.behindthename.com/name/madison>
- ⦿ http://www.etymonline.com/index.php?term=text&allowed_in_frame=0
- ⦿ <http://dictionary.reference.com/>