

By: Christian LeMay

Etymology Project

Life [Lahyf]

Noun, Adjective.

1. The general or universal condition of human existence.
2. A state, existence, or principle of existence conceived as belonging to the soul.
3. The state that distinguishes organisms from inorganic objects and dead organisms.

Harmony [Hahr-muh-nee]

Noun.

1. A consistent; orderly or pleasing arrangement of parts.
2. An agreement; accord; harmonious relations.
3. an arrangement of the contents of the Gospels, either of all four or of the first three, designed to show their parallelism, mutual relations, and differences.

Christian[Kris- Chen]

1. From the Medieval Latin name Christianus meaning "a Christian".
2. In England it has been in use since the Middle Ages, during which time it was used by both males and females, but it didn't become common until the 17th century.
3. In Denmark the name has been borne by ten kings since the 15th century.

LeMay [Le-Mai]

1. The LeMay family name dates back to Medieval France and comes from a member of a family from Normandy who was born in May.

2. Being born in May was considered lucky because May was the month of the harvest season.

References

- <http://dictionary.reference.com/browse/life?s=t>
- <http://www.google.com/search?hl=en&site=imghp&tbm=isch&source=hp&q=life&biw=1920&bih=899&sei=xlGKUdXxBsWB4ASBkoCYAQ>
- <http://dictionary.reference.com/browse/Harmony?s=t&path=/>
- <http://www.google.com/search?hl=en&site=imghp&tbm=isch&source=hp&q=harmony&biw=1920&bih=899&sei=x1aKUYeVL6G24ASjp4DADw>
- <http://www.behindthename.com/name/christian>