

Hunter smith

Battle ,blaze
and Hunter

Battle definitions

- A hostile encounter or engagement between opposing military forces.
- A fight between two people or animals.
- Any conflict or struggle

Battle history

- It came from the old French word bataille meaning-single combat, inner turmoil, and harsh circumstances
- The time period it came from was the late 14th century

The battle of Gettysburg

Blaze definitions

- a bright flame or fire
- a bright, hot gleam or glow
- a sparkling brightness
- a sudden, intense outburst, as of fire, passion, or fury

Blaze history

- Came from old English word blasé meaning a torch, flame, firebrand, or lamp.
- The time period it came from is the early 12th century.

A forest fire

Hunter definitions

- A person who hunts game or other wild animals for food or in sport.
- A person who searches for or seeks something.
- A horse specially trained for quietness, stamina, and jumping ability in hunting.
- An animal, as a dog, trained to hunt game.

Hunter history

- PRONOUNCED: HUN-tər
- derived from Old English
- Masculine

Hunter on a mountain top

Web sites

- <http://www.maderafsc.org>
- <Http://explorepahistory.com>
- <http://www.behindthename.com>
- <http://dictionary.com>
- <http://www.etymonline.com>
- <http://www.dorriolds.com>